STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Signifying historic site planning, this property contains a house oriented toward W.Bel Air Ave. and a barn, garage and outbuildings, all built during different time periods but all placed to the south of the house. Of the Victorian era, this dwelling displays such stylistic elements as an oculous, Peach Bottom slate shingles on the roof and a wrap-around porch with banisters, turned balisters and columns, scrollwork and latticework. The barn with its cornorib and the series of outbuildings with itd henhouse and storage area reflect the agrarian history of Aberdeen. This property was once owned by the Osborns, a farming family who has lived in the community for many generations.
